Adventures in Public Transportation

This book belongs to

I went to visit my grandma in the city.

It was sooooo exciting! The buildings were tall and the streets were filled with busy people.

We were going to visit the museum.

"Let's just hop on the cross-town bus," my grandma said. Cool! The bus driver smiled at us. My grandma had a bus pass, but she paid for me with money she put in a little box.

We found seats, but lots of people were standing.

My grandma told me that people in our country have taken more than 10 billion trips on Public Transportation.

We got to the museum zippety-zip
and had a wonderful day.
I REALLY liked riding the bus.

It was a big surprise!
We were going to the zoo!

"We're going on the subway," grandma said. We rode the escalator down, down, down to the platform.
We waited for a subway train to come.
The doors opened with a whoosh!

The next morning grandma had another surprise.

"We're going to visit a farm," she said. "Come on – we don't want to be late for the train." The train station was soooo big! I LOVED looking out the window to see the city turn into beautiful green fields with horses and cows.

The next day, grandma and I were going to the theater.

"I think we'll just grab a cab," she said. We went outside her apartment and suddenly grandma whistled
the loudest whistle I've ever heard and a cab stopped.

We sang the songs from the show
as we took another cab home from the theater.

It was time for me to go back home.

I told my grandma, "I had the best time – ever!"
"What did you like the best?" she asked. "Was it the museum or the zoo or the farm or the theater?"

I liked them all, I told her!

What I really LOVED was the bus, the subway, the train and the cab! Public Transportation is lots of fun!
