Santa Visited Me!

This book belongs to

My family and I moved to a new house in a new city in a new state. It was in the middle of summer so I wasn't thinking about Christmas at all.

But then summer was over and it was time to go back to school. I still wasn't thinking about Christmas. I was too busy meeting new friends and learning new things.

Suddenly it was Thanksgiving! And before we even finished the leftover turkey, my mom said it was time to find the box with our Christmas decorations in it.

Then I remembered. We moved!
How in the world will Santa find our house?

I asked my dad. He said not to worry.
Santa knows everyone's address. But I didn't believe it.
How could he know everyone's address in the whole world?

I asked my mom. She said that Santa knows everything.
"He knows that we moved," she said.

Then I thought of something else. Our old house had a fireplace. The new house didn't. How is Santa going to come down a chimney that we don't even have?

I wanted to cry!

This was going to be the worst,
most terrible, awful Christmas ever!

But I was wrong. Boy was I ever! Santa DID know our new address. And he didn't even need a chimney. Christmas morning was just like it was last year in our old house. Only better! It was the BEST EVER!

I learned something really important that Christmas
- you have to trust and believe.
Especially in something as important as Santa!
